Dear Friends,

It is with much pleasure to be able to bring you our annual Jewish Art Calendar for the Jewish year 5782 (2021-22.)

Thinking about Rosh Hashanah, this past year has been like a shofar in many ways. Twisting and turning, ups and downs. Beginning the year with restrictions and then back to a close semblance of "normal" and back to what we experienced earlier in the year.

Nevertheless, here at the Jewish Life Center and Sha'arei Israel, our year has also been one of consistency; our doors have been open—consistently and reliably—at a time of much upheaval in the entire world. We have been here consistently for those looking to discover their rich Jewish heritage, and those who want to question it. We have been here consistently for those in need of practical, emotional and spiritual support and as a communal resource and support system for all.

It has also been a year of growth and achievement: We've offered an array of classes and programs virtually as well as many safe, in-person classes, stimulating programs and events for children, adults and seniors. We look forward to this coming year and pray that it will be one of positive growth amidst good health and peace. Moreover, we are looking forward to having you on board on our journey!

Our source of financial support is derived from generous contributions from our advertisers and from people like yourself in our community. Your kind and generous support helps us to continue our work in strengthening Jewish identity, pride and awareness. You can donate by visiting www.jewishraleigh.org/donate. Thank you for making it possible for us to continue our vital work in the Triangle area!

May G-d grant you and your entire family a happy and healthy New Year and may you merit to be inscribed—together with your loved ones – in the Book of Life, peace, good health and prosperity.

Rabbi Lev and Dassy Cotlar
Rabbi Mendy and Brocha Wilschanski

THIS CALENDAR IS DEDICATED TO THE
LUBAVITCHER REBBE,
RABBI MENACHEM M. SCHNEERSOHN

His personal devotion to each and every individual Jew as well as his dedication to G-d and His Torah, continue to inspire the Chabad center here in Raleigh.

Shanah Tovah!

Wishing the Jewish Community
a Happy, Healthy and Sweet New Year!

ELUL 5781-TISHREI 5782

A MONTH OF HOLIDAYS

Tishrei, the first month of the Jewish year, is full of momentous and meaningful days of celebration. These days, throughout the month of Tishrei, are opportunities to connect, to be inspired, and to become more fulfilled and in tune with our true inner selves. Tishrei is considered the "head" of the year, and the reservoir from which we draw our strength and inspiration throughout the year ahead.

SUKKOT

The Festival of Sukkot is observed through the joyous performance of two mitzvot:
 Sukkah: For the duration of the holiday it is a mitzvah to eat in a Sukkah, a temporary hut covered by loose tree branches.
 Lulav & Etrog: Each day of the festival (except Shabbat) we take the "four species" and shake them together.

OCTOBER

TISHREI - CHESHVAN

MEZUZAH

The mezuzah, a handwritten scroll containing the Shema, is affixed to the right doorpost. It designates our home as Jewish. Symbolizing G-d's watchful eye upon us, the mezuzah provides protection for its inhabitants, wherever they may be.

The decorative case containing the mezuzah scroll is just that: a mere container. What's important is the scroll, upon which the first two sections of the Shema are handwritten. Beginning with the eternal words "Hear o Israel, the L-rd is our G-d, the L-rd is One," these selections contain G-d's instruction to affix the mezuzah. "You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates."

These words are handwritten by an expert scribe who is trained in the many laws involved in writing a mezuzah. Every single letter in the mezuzah must be properly formed. A single crack in the parchment or any omission can invalidate the entire scroll. A printed mezuzah is invalid.

NOVEMBER CHESHVAN - KISLEV

SHABBAT

Shabbat Candles: As a beacon to an airplane in the endless darkness of the night sky or a lighthouse to a ship caught in the turbulent waves of a stormy sea, Jewish women and young girls illuminate the confusion and turmoil of our ever-more-chaotic lives. Our Shabbat candles transform our homes into islands of peace and serenity. Light up your corner of the world with the Shabbat candles.

Challah: The aroma, the texture, the golden brown beauty of a freshly baked challah is a reminder of the manna that fell in the desert. Its indescribable taste has graced Shabbat tables for millennia.

DECEMBER KISLEV - TEVET

CHANUKAH

During the time of the Second Temple, the Jews fought the Greeks who were threatening the spiritual existence of Judaism. After a completely miraculous victory, the Jews were once again reunited with their precious Temple. With no usable olive oil for the holy Menorah, but for one small jug, G-d performed yet another miracle and that jug of oil lasted 8 nights instead of one. Latkes fried in oil are customary Chanukah treats to remind us of this great miracle.

JANUARY

TEVET - SHEVAT

TREE'S NEW YEAR

The 15th of Shevat on the Jewish calendar is the day that marks the beginning of a "new year" for trees. Commonly known as Tu Bishvat, this day marks the season in which the earliest-blooming trees in the Land of Israel emerge from their winter sleep and begin a new fruit-bearing cycle.

To commemorate this special day, Jews throughout the world eat foods that are distinctive to and characteristic of the Holy Land, including the seven types of fruits and grain mentioned in the Torah: wheat, barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives, and dates. On this day, a new seasonal fruit is customarily eaten for the first time. The blessings Shehecheyanu and Ha'eitz are said over the fruit.

FEBRUARY

SHEVAT – ADAR I

TZEDAKA

Tzedaka is commonly translated as charity, but really means “justice” or “righteousness”. In Judaism, giving to people in need is not merely a kind thing to do, but rather the just, right behavior.

Everything in our lives is a gift from G-d, including the money we earn. G-d has granted us this money, and in doing so, has asked us to partner with Him in distributing to those in need. Every coin we give to the less fortunate allows us to become partners with G-d in providing for the needs of another. In a metaphorical sense, the act of Tzedaka raises us up and empowers us to act as the hand of G-d by distributing the money to those whom G-d has intended.

PURIM

The most joyous holiday of the year, Purim, commemorates the salvation of the Jewish people from the complete annihilation decreed by the wicked Haman. Queen Esther, a young Jewish heroine, sought out King Achashverosh and begged him to intervene.

Every year, we read the story to remind us of this great miracle. We celebrate in many ways, including a great feast, food gift baskets to our friends, and charity to the poor.

APRIL ADAR II - NISSAN

PASSOVER

Passover celebrates the miraculous exodus from Egypt and the birth of the Jewish people. After 210 years of slavery and oppression, G-d freed the Jewish people. The Jews departed in great haste, without even enough time for their dough to rise, resulting in the flat unleavened bread we call Matzah.

Each year on Pesach, to commemorate this great miracle of redemption, we eat Matzah and refrain from eating any leavened products, known as Chametz. Jewish homes throughout the world spend the days and weeks before Pesach carefully cleaning their homes, culminating in a search for every last crumb. On the morning before Passover begins, one burns the remaining bits of Chametz found during the search the previous night.

MAOT CHITIM
Gifts to the Poor

In the weeks preceding Passover it is customary to assist needy families by providing them with monetary aid, enabling them to purchase all the holiday necessities

LAG BAOMER

Lag Baomer is a joyous day on the Jewish calendar, with bonfires customarily being lit as part of the celebrations.

Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, the great scholar and Kabbalist of the 2nd century, passed away on this day and instructed his students to mark the day as "the day of my joy". Rabbi Shimon was a great mystic, and through his writing of Kabbalah, his bright light shines until today.

Bonfires are a symbol of the fiery spirit of the deep and mystical teachings that Rabbi Shimon shared with the world, reminding us of our mission to bring light into the world as well.

SHAVUOT

Shavuot marks the day upon which G-d gave the Torah to the entire Jewish nation over 3,300 years ago. In Hebrew, the word shavuot means "weeks" and stands for the seven weeks during which the Jewish people prepared themselves for the giving of the Torah. During this time they rid themselves of the scars of bondage and became a holy nation ready to stand before G-d.

JULY TAMMUZ - MENACHEM AV

HILLS OF JERUSALEM

In the months of Tammuz and Av we observe "The Three Weeks," the mourning period which commemorates the capture of Jerusalem and subsequent destruction of its Holy Temple. The midrash teaches that when Moshiach comes and rebuilds the third Temple, which will stand forever, these days will be transformed from ones of mourning to joy.

MENACHEM AV - ELUL

HOLY TEMPLE

What makes a house into a home? Home is the place where our inner selves can be revealed, the place we feel the most comfortable and safe. On a Jerusalem mountain, G-d's divine presence dwells. Only remnants remain of the sanctuary where our physical selves could truly be at one with G-dliness, the place where our souls could truly feel comfortable and safe.

ELUL 5782-TISHREI 5783

MONTH OF ELUL

Elul is the 12th and final month in the Jewish calendar. It is a month that connects the past year with the coming year—a time when we reflect on where we stand and where we should be going. It is taught that in this month, the “King is in the Field,” and G-d is readily accessible, willing to hear our requests and listen to our fervent prayers for the coming new year.

Holiday Recipes & Tips

ROSH HASHANA Classic Honey Cake

- 3 Eggs
- 1 1/3 cups honey
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 cup strong black coffee
- 2 t. Baking powder
- 3 T. Margarine, softened
- 1 t. Baking soda
- 4 cups flour
- 1 t cinnamon

Preheat oven to 325.

Grease and flour (TIP: I like to use the "baking spray with flour") a 9 by 13-inch cake pan.

In a large mixer bowl, beat eggs and honey together. Add sugar and mix again. Mix coffee with baking powder, and then add with margarine to the egg mixture. Add baking soda, flour, and cinnamon and beat together well.

Pour into greased cake pan. Bake for an hour.

SUKKOT- SIMCHAT TORAH Un-stuffed Cabbage

- 2 cans of tomato sauce
- 1 large can tomato juice
- 1 cup water
- 1 large onions
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 lb. ground meat
- 1 1/2 t. salt
- 3/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 potato, grated
- 2 eggs or 3 egg whites
- 2 bags of shredded cabbage

Pour the tomato sauce and juice into a large pot. Add lemon juice and water. Bring to a boil. Then add the cabbage and let it continue cooking.

In the meantime prepare the meatballs: In a large bowl, mix together the meat, spices, potato, eggs, and onion, diced small. Roll a Tablespoon of the mixture at a time into meatballs, add it to the sauce in the pot. Simmer for 45 minute - 1 hour (Mixing occasionally).

CHANUKAH Sweet Potato Latkes

- 2 medium potatoes, shredded
- 1 small sweet potato, shredded
- 1 small onion, grated
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 1/4 tsp. salt
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 3 tablespoons olive oil

TIP: For more moist Latkes add 1 small zucchini, shredded and drained

Mix all the ingredients (except the oil) in a large bowl. Heat 3 tablespoons olive oil in a frying pan at medium-high heat. Place spoonfuls of mixture into pan and flatten each with spatula. Fry latkes until golden brown on both sides.

PURIM Savory Hamantashen

- 1 sheet of puff pastry
- 2 tomatoes diced
- 1/2 onion diced
- 1/2 cup of crumbled feta cheese
- 1/4 cup of fresh basil diced

Cut out triangle shape pieces of puff pastry dough using a knife or cookie cutter. Saute the onions until tender. Add the tomatoes and cook for several minutes. Place 1 teaspoon in the center of each triangle. Top with some feta cheese and basil. Bake in oven on 375 for 15 to 20 minutes until golden and crispy.

TIP: Replace the tomatoes and onions with olives and capers for another option.

PESACH Matza Balls

- 2 eggs slightly beaten
- 2 tablespoons oil or Shmaltz (chicken fat)
- 2 tablespoons soup stock or water
- 1/2 cup matzah meal
- 1 teaspoon salt

Beat eggs slightly with fork. Add other ingredients, except matzah meal, and mix. Add matzah meal gradually until thick. Stir. Refrigerate for 20 minutes in covered bowl. Wet hands and form into balls. Boil 1 Quart of water with 1 T salt. Drop the balls into bubbling water. Cook for 30 minutes. (8 balls per each 1/2 cup of matzah meal).

Note: Many communities have the custom of not eating wetted matzah on the first seven days of Passover. In these communities, matzah balls and other recipes that use matzah are used only on the eighth day of Passover.

SHAVUOS Creamy Cheesecake

- 1 8 inch graham cracker crust
- 8 oz. cream cheese
- 8 oz. Cottage cheese
- 2 eggs
- 3/4 cups sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract

Pre heat oven to 350. Place the cream cheese, cottage cheese, eggs, sugar, and vanilla in a bowl. Using an electric mixer, blend at low speed. Eventually, as the ingredients blend, increase speed to high. Blend until smooth. Pour filling into graham cracker pan. TIP: For Marble cheese cake drizzle with chocolate syrup and gently swirl batter with a knife. Place the pan in the preheated oven and bake for 30 minutes. TIP: When the cheesecake is ready, turn off the oven and leave the cheesecake inside for an additional half hour - this will avoid cracking the top.

2021–2022 Course Offerings

Outsmarting Antisemitism

It's hard to outrun it. It's time to outsmart it.

OCTOBER 2021

Against the backdrop of a recent uptick in antisemitism and the increased anxiety it has brought to the Jewish community, this course sets out to beat this age-old cancer—with purpose, positivity, and pride. Marshaling historical analysis, Talmudic sources, Jewish mysticism, and contemporary expert analysis, the four lessons of this course provide insight, perspective, practical direction, and personal reassurance to motivate and inspire proud, fearless Jewish life.

Jewish Meditation

Meditation. Mindfulness. Spirituality.

FEBRUARY 2022

Judaism places great emphasis on action. As a result, many Jews are unaware of another important facet of the Jewish tradition: deeply meaningful teachings about mindfulness, spirituality, and meditative practices. This course advances the uniquely Jewish approaches to these fascinating topics. Whether you've practiced meditation before or not, this course will both inspire and practically guide you so that you can reap the benefits of a more spiritual and mindful life.

Beyond Right

The Values That Shape Judaism's Civil Code.

MAY 2022

Talmudic analysis and mind-bending logic have long been hallmarks of Jewish scholarship. But buried beneath much of the discussion and legalese are core Jewish values that fuel so much of the debate. This course examines a number of key legal issues that disclose fundamental ethical considerations that serve as the engine of Jewish civil law.

HOW TO LIGHT SHABBAT CANDLES

- 1. HOW TO: It starts with one light. Add a candle for your spouse, and if you're a mother, one for each child. A girl over the age of three may (with help from Mom) light her own candle.

Before kindling the candles (exact time is mentioned in the bottom of each calendar box), we think of those less fortunate and put a coin in a charity box.
- 2. LIGHT A CANDLE. After the candles are lit, the woman stretches her hands out towards the candles, and moves them inwards in a circular motion – ushering in a special guest, the Shabbat Queen – three times. After the third time, the woman covers her eyes with her hands and recites the following blessing:
- 3. THE BLESSING: Baruch a-ta A-do-nay Elo-hei-nu me-lech ha-o-lam a-she-ki-dee-sha-nu bi-mitz-vo-tav vi-tzi-va-noo li-had-leek ner shel Sha-bat Ko-desh.
TRANSLATION: Blessed are you, L-rd our G-d, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us to kindle the light of the Holy Shabbat.
- 4. SAY A PRAYER. The moments immediately after reciting the blessing, while the woman's eyes are still covered, are an extremely auspicious time for her to offer a private prayer for anything her heart desires. It is customary to use this special time to appeal to G-d for children who will glow with the radiance of the Torah, and that He light up the world with the light of the Redemption.
