Dear Friend,

As we approach a new year filled with opportunities and adventures, we are thrilled to share this exquisite Jewish Art Calendar with you.

This calendar is more than just a guide for Shabbat times and upcoming Jewish holidays; it's a vibrant addition that brings light and meaning to your home and office. Each time you flip through these pages, plan a family vacation, check an upcoming Jewish holiday, or schedule a family Shabbat dinner, we hope you will feel the beauty of our heritage and that it serves as a catalyst for deeper engagement with Jewish study and experiences.

Now more than ever, Jews worldwide are uniting and embracing their Judaism with renewed enthusiasm. We seek ways to connect, recognize the power of a mitzvah, pray for our brothers and sisters, and strengthen our Jewish pride.

At the Jewish Life Center, we aim to provide every Jew, regardless of age, background, level of knowledge, or financial means, with opportunities for connection through authentic and meaningful Jewish experiences. Whether a program for toddlers, Hebrew school for kids, Cteen Jr. for tweens and Cteen for the teens, Jewish Women's Club & Men's Club get together, special accredited courses with JLI learning and many other learning & prayer opportunities, camp for the summer break and so much more. We strive to have something for the whole Mishpacha and we invite you to join us and participate!

As we usher in the Jewish year of 5785, we pray for peace in our Holy Land and the safety and security of our brothers and sisters in Israel and worldwide.

May G-d bless you with a happy, healthy, and sweet new year of 5785. May this calendar be filled with celebrations, joyous occasions, and memorable events.

On behalf of all of us at the Jewish Life Center - Chabad of Raleigh- we wish you a Shana Tova U'Metukah, a happy, sweet new year - May this year bring revealed blessings in every area of your life.

Rabbi Mendy & Brocha Wilschanski
Chabad of Raleigh

MENACHEM AV - ELUL

THE SHOFAR

Elul is the month preceding Rosh Hashanah and serves as a bridge from one year to the next. It is a time to reflect on the past and prepare for the upcoming year on the Jewish calendar. We blow the shofar daily during the month of Elul, a powerful call to open our hearts. The shofar is the cry of our soul, yearning to reconnect with our Creator. The sound of the shofar reminds us to increase our Teshuva (repentance), Tefilah (prayer), and Tzedaka (charity). It urges us to mend past mistakes and dedicate ourselves to a better future. The soul-stirring sounds of the shofar inspire us to come closer to G-d and remind us of the transformative potential within each of us.

The Torah calls Rosh Hashanah the “day of the shofar blast.” The central mitzvah of Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish New Year) is to hear the shofar being blown—ideally as part of the prayer service in the synagogue.

OCTOBER

ELUL 5784 - TISHREI 5785

HIGH HOLIDAY SEASON

Three times a year, Jews would gather in Jerusalem at the Beit Hamikdash for the pilgrimage festivals of Pesach, Shavuot, and Sukkot, known as the Shalosh Regalim. These gatherings were times to renew and strengthen connection to G-d and community. Many Jews would arrive in Jerusalem before Rosh Hashanah to spend the High Holy Days in the Beit Hamikdash. Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, the holiest day on the Jewish calendar, had a unique status as the one day of the year the High Priest entered the Kodesh Hakedashim, the most sacred room of the Temple. After Yom Kippur, the streets and homes in Jerusalem would be lit up with oil lamps and candles to signify our faith in an upcoming year full of blessings and joy. Today, many synagogues conclude Yom Kippur with singing and dancing to signify that same hope.

TISHREI - CHESHVAN

SHABBAT

Since Sarah our matriarch, Jewish women have been lighting Shabbat candles on Friday, eighteen minutes before sunset. For millennia, this profound act of faith and tradition ushers the holiness of Shabbat into the home. As the flames are kindled, an atmosphere of peace and tranquility pervades the home, inviting G-d's presence and blessing. These transformative moments are marked by quiet moments of individual prayer. The flickering light not only dispels physical darkness but also illuminates the spiritual darkness that can pervade our inner and outer worlds. This sacred practice highlights the essential role of women in cultivating an atmosphere of holiness, reflection, and shalom bayit – peace in the home. Each week, the Shabbat candles transition our homes from the mundane to the sacred, while fostering a sense of connection and tranquility.

DECEMBER CHESHVAN - KISLEV

CHANUKAH

Over 2,000 years ago, the Syrian-Greek empire sought to impose its culture and suppress Jewish practice and faith, but a small band of Jews, the Maccabees, stood up for G-d and their beliefs and miraculously triumphed. When they reclaimed the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, they found only enough pure oil to light the menorah for one day, yet it burned for eight days until new oil could be procured.

Two millennia later, in millions of Jewish homes worldwide, we kindle our menorahs as a reminder that light always triumphed over darkness. The menorah is a symbol of Jewish faith, a reminder that regardless of the darkness surrounding us, we can add light, one candle, one moment at a time. Each of us must be a menorah and illuminate the world with acts of goodness and kindness.

TEFILLIN -PROTECTING OUR LAND

Tefillin are wrapped around the arm and placed on the head, symbolizing the binding of our thoughts and actions to G-d's will. Before the outbreak of the 1967 war, the Lubavitcher Rebbe issued a spiritual "call to arms," urging Jewish males to don these holy heart-and-mind connectors known as tefillin. The Talmud explains that the spiritual potency of tefillin instills fear in our enemy. By wrapping tefillin daily, we stand united with our brothers and sisters, drawing strength and protection for Israel and Jews worldwide. In these turbulent times, let us embrace the power of tefillin to safeguard our homeland and infuse our lives with meaning and holiness. May our prayers and actions bring peace and security to Israel and its people.

FEBRUARY SHEVAT

TREE'S NEW YEAR

There are seven species of fruit and grain which the Torah mentions specifically in connection to the Land of Israel. Although Israel is famous for its produce, there is something unique about these seven species of wheat: barley, pomegranates, figs, dates, olives, and grapes.

These seven species can be categorized into grains and fruit from trees. Grains, the necessary fuel for our physical self, and fruits, which add pleasure to life, are both crucial. This is why they are included in the blessing for the land of Israel.

On the 15th of Shevat, the New Year for Trees, there is a custom to eat from each of the seven species, but we celebrate the five fruits that grow on trees, reminding us that we cultivate our own holy spaces through our mitzvot, we need to find the enjoyment and pleasure in our Jewish experiences.

MARCH

ADAR - NISSAN

PURIM

Joy is an essential part of Judaism. The Torah teaches, "Ivdu Et Hashem B'Simcha"—serve G-d with joy. The Talmud instructs that with the arrival of Adar, we must increase in our joy. But why does G-d want us to be happy?

There are many perspectives on life. We can see it as an endless monotony of days following one from the next. We can focus on the darkness and confusion, or we can see opportunities to help others, connect with G-d, and do good. When we choose to see these opportunities, joy naturally follows. This joy isn't just an emotion but a fundamental way to serve G-d and fulfill our purpose. By embracing this joyful outlook, we transform our lives and the world, fulfilling G-d's mandate to each of us.

APRIL NISSAN - IYAR

PASSOVER - SONG OF MIRIAM

Pesach commemorates the exodus from Egypt and the birth of the Jewish nation. Seven days after the Jews fled Egypt, they found themselves in a dire situation, with the Egyptian army in pursuit and the sea blocking their escape. In a truly miraculous act of salvation, G-d split the sea, creating a path for the Jewish nation to cross over safely. In gratitude for this extraordinary miracle, Moshe led the men in a song of thanks. But it was Miriam, the prophetess, who led the women in their own song, accompanied by tambourines. As they escaped slavery in Egypt, they had faith that there would be opportunities to dance, sing, and praise G-d, so they packed their tambourines in anticipation of their celebration. Miriam's song is a testament to the unwavering faith of Jewish women throughout history.

MIKVAH - FAMILY PURITY

There's a building whose construction takes precedence over a synagogue. A synagogue may even be sold to raise funds for this building. This is a mikvah, a ritual pool of water constructed according to the exact specifications outlined in Jewish law. Immersion in a mikvah has the power to spiritually transform. The primary function of the mikvah today is its use in the observance of the Jewish "Family Purity" laws. These laws have the power to sanctify the most intimate aspects of our relationships, turning them into a vehicle for sacred blessing while reinforcing the bond between husband and wife and drawing G-d's presence into their home and family, blessing their relationship with holiness and peace.

SHAVUOT - TORAH STUDY

Shavuot celebrates G-d giving us the Torah on Mount Sinai. Over 3,000 years ago, during this pivotal moment, G-d broke the barrier between heaven and earth to gift us the Torah. This sacred text is the ultimate blueprint for life, each word layered with profound meaning and interpretation. On Shavuot, we recognize that each time we study even a single verse of the Torah, we connect deeply with G-d's will and wisdom, becoming one with G-d Himself. The power of Torah lies in its ability to change and transform, guiding and enriching every aspect of our lives. Celebrating Shavuot, we reaffirm our commitment to Torah study and applying its lessons to our daily lives and routines.

JULY

TAMMUZ - MENACHEM AV

THREE WEEKS

The Three Weeks, between the 17th of Tammuz and 9 of Av, is a period of mourning for the destruction of both Temples. Yet, within this sorrow lies a profound opportunity for spiritual growth. Although there are specific mourning practices during this time, our focus should be on learning about and preparing for the coming of Moshiach. Our study of the Torah, especially the teachings on redemption, transforms our loss and sorrow into hope and action for a better tomorrow. By enhancing our mitzvot, acts of kindness, and deepening our connection to Hashem, we actively participate in the ultimate healing and transformation of the world. This period is not meant to be merely about remembering the past but also about paving the way for a future of global peace through the coming of Moshiach.

MENACHEM AV - ELUL

HOLY TEMPLE

The Beit Hamikdash, the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, was the spiritual heart of the Jewish people and a space that symbolized our deepest connection to Hashem. Its destruction on the 9th of Av, first by the Babylonians and later by the Romans, makes this day the saddest on our Jewish calendar. The day of Tisha B'Av is observed with fasting, mourning, prayer, and reflection on our immense loss. The Temple was not just a physical structure but a place where the Divine Presence rested, a physical home for G-d here in this world. Its loss signifies a rupture in our direct spiritual connection. Yet our sages teach us that within each of our homes and hearts, we can build our own miniature Temples, a home for G-d. How can we ensure that our homes are places where G-d feels welcome?

SEPTEMBER

ELUL 5785 – TISHREI 5786

ROSH HASHANAH

In the month of Elul, we prepare for Rosh Hashanah and celebrate the complete cycle of the Jewish Year. Rosh Hashanah begins the Yamim Noraim, the High Holy Days and the Ten Days of Repentance, culminating in Yom Kippur. It is a time for introspection and self-evaluation while celebrating the creation of humankind and our acceptance of G-d's sovereignty over us. On Rosh Hashanah, we blow the shofar, a ram's horn, to awaken our souls and inspire us. It is an unsophisticated instrument with a simple sound. It is the sound of our souls crying out to return to G-d. The shofar reminds us that even if we lack the knowledge, our sincerity is what matters in the eyes of G-d.

HOLIDAY GUIDE

Candle Lighting Guide

HOW TO LIGHT SHABBAT CANDLES

1. HOW TO: It starts with one light. Add a candle for your spouse, and if you're a mother, one for each child. A girl over the age of three may (with help from Mom) light her own candle.

Before kindling the candles (exact time is mentioned in the bottom of each calendar box), we think of those less fortunate and put a coin in a charity box.

2. LIGHT A CANDLE. After the candles are lit, the woman stretches her hands out towards the candles, and moves them inwards in a circular motion – ushering in a special guest, the Shabbat Queen – three times. After the third time, the woman covers her eyes with her hands and recites the following blessing:

3. THE BLESSING: Baruch a-ta A-do-nay Elo-hei-nu me-lech ha-o-lam a-she-er ki-dee-sha-nu bi-mitz-vo-tav vi-tzi-va-noo li-had-leek ner shel Sha-bat Ko-desh.

TRANSLATION: Blessed are you, L-rd our G-d, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with His commandments, and commanded us to kindle the light of the Holy Shabbat.

4. SAY A PRAYER. The moments immediately after reciting the blessing, while the woman's eyes are still covered, are an extremely auspicious time for her to offer a private prayer for anything her heart desires. It is customary to use this special time to appeal to G-d for children who will glow with the radiance of the Torah, and that He light up the world with the light of the Redemption.
